

The Coconino Sun

VOL. XVIII.

FLAGSTAFF, APRIL 27, 1901.

No. 17

LOCAL BREVITIES.

T. E. Pollock is in Kingman.

Timerhoff's poultry powder cures chicken cholera.

E. M. Doe left for Prescott on business Wednesday, returning Friday.

Born—To wife of Apollonio Rodriguez on Sunday, April 21, a daughter.

H. W. Dinkle, of Los Angeles, is among the late arrivals at the Weatherford.

Last Saturday was pay day at the Arizona Lumber and Timber company's mill.

J. F. Burns, claim agent of the Santa Fe Pacific, was in town on business Wednesday.

Quite a number of tourists stopped off here during the week and visited the points of interest in this vicinity.

The Imperial Steam Laundry of Albuquerque, is represented in Flagstaff by Geo. E. Palmer. Give him your laundry.

Julius Herman has received an interesting letter in regard to the possibilities of investment of capital in Coconino county.

A reward of $500 is offered by the governor for the arrest and conviction of the assassins of Ed. Beeler, ex-sheriff of Apache county.

Max Salzman, one of Williams' substantial business men was in this city Thursday. Max was looking out for his interests in this end of the county.

The Racket Store in order to close out entire stock of second-hand goods and Chinaware offers them at cost. Call and make your purchases before it is too late.

Keller of Oakland, California, will fit you by mail, just order your shirts and clothing from them direct. Keller's man will visit Flagstaff about every sixty days.

A perfect climate and a contented people are among the noticeable characteristics of Flagstaff which were mentioned by an eastern gentleman who is touring the west.

The Lowell observatory will be open on Saturday night instead of Friday night, as stated in our last issue. The change of date was made in order to accommodate those wishing to witness the performance at the school building last evening.

Miss Lizzie Allen, sister of the publisher of the Las Vegas Optic, stopped off to visit Mrs. J. C. Milligan, an old friend, while en route to the Pacific coast. Miss Allen is taking a well deserved recreative trip after a long time of journalistic work on the excellent paper with which she is connected.

The pastor of the Methodist church, J. H. Henry, has received several letters recently from people in the far east, making inquiries in regard to land values, climatic conditions, healthfulness, etc., of Flagstaff, which fact indicates that the fame of our little city and country around it has overleaped the great divide and extends to the far Atlantic slope, and will continue to attract the health seeker and the investor of capital as the years roll on.

Typewriter papers in various weights at Timerhoff's.

Ed. Greenlaw was in town from the mill on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Carroll paid the city a visit during the week.

It keeps them well and makes them lay—Timerhoff's poultry powder.

John and Lee Vankamp left for Wisconsin Tuesday on a visit to their old home.

Phoenix has in view the erection of a new hotel which is to eclipse in size any hotel in the southeast.

Babbitt Brothers' teams came in Tuesday from the trading post with a heavy load of blankets and wool.

Charley Morrow, the irrepressible, is back from a successful round-up expedition to the Little Colorado river.

"Uncle Jim" Wallace, of the Winslow Mail, was in town last Saturday taking in the sights of the metropolis.

Agents wanted, ladies or men, to sell gilt-edge oil stocks. Queen Oil Co., 916 Market street, San Francisco, California.

Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Oliver and Miss J. Oliver, of San Francisco, occupied a suite of rooms at the Weatherford during the week.

Village school shoes for boys and girls. The best school shoe ever brought to Flagstaff are sold by the New York Store.

W. H. Barbage, county attorney of Navajo county, and Banker Nelson, of Winslow, made a flying business trip to this city last Monday.

J. F. Wilson, ex-delegate to congress and J. J. Hawkins, ex-associate justice of the territorial supreme court, have formed a co-partnership for the practice of law in Prescott.

The Racket Store is the place to secure bargains in Chinaware at cost price. Nothing reserved and every article in the store is for sale. Call and get your choice and avoid the rush.

Last Sunday the following persons comprised a party of pleasure seekers to the famous cliff dwellings near this city: Mrs. and Mrs. M. I. Powers; Misses Mae Walker, Lulu Hunter and Anna Miller; Messrs. W. B. Weir, of Monmouth, Ills., C. O. Robinson and F. C. Roberts.

F. E. Reed has been appointed deputy assessor for this end of the county, and the rate of speed at which he is getting around among the citizens would prophesy that the taxes will certainly not become delinquent before he gets the assessment completed. We doubt not that Mr. Reed will make a very careful and conscientious assessment of property values in the city.

Prof. C. B. Wood, wife and daughter spent the last week in Flagstaff taking in the various places of interest in and around our city, viz: The Grand Canyon, the cliff dwellings, the Lowell observatory, the Indian blankets, the pigmy mummies and gazing with undimmed eye upon the snow capped summit of Old Francisco mountain which for ages has kept guard over the beautiful nook in whose bosom rests our interesting little city, that is noted far and wide as the most delightful summer climate in matchless Arizona.

School supplies of all kinds at Timerhoff's.

Tom Pickett, of Winslow, was seen last Saturday on our streets.

J. H. Sterling, a Williamsite, was in town Thursday on business.

T. S. Bunch left Monday for Apache county to attend court which convenes at St. Johns on May 6th.

Flagstaff Lodge, No. 13, A. O. U. W. has leased the Elks' hall for the regular meeting of that lodge.

It is claimed that Phoenix at her next election will have in the neighborhood of 2000 registered voters.

Fire Insurance—The Arizona Central Bank represents a number of the largest American and English companies.

For Rent—One hundred and fifty acres of choice farming land. A good opportunity for the right man. Apply to E. S. Gosney.

Henry Cooper, the popular mixologist, has improved the appearance of his residence by having a handsome fence built around it.

Work has been commenced on the new addition to the county jail. Stonemasons have arrived and the building will be pushed to completion.

Wm. Morgan, member of the legislature from Navajo county and Miss Mata P. Davenport, of Phoenix, were married at Phoenix on Tuesday.

For Sale—Hoosier grain drill, 6-inch hoe, in first-class condition. Price reasonable. Drill may be seen at my ranch, three miles north of town. W. H. Anderson.

Two sections of No. 1 and also two sections of No. 7 west bound passenger trains, were noted on Friday. All of these trains were comfortably filled with passengers.

A. M. Jordan, who has been canvassing the southern part of the territory as an aspirant for United States marshal of Arizona, returned home Wednesday, reporting progress in his efforts.

Mr. Ole Kyhm, who has been employed at Norman Cameron's logging camp for some time past, left for his ranch about ten miles north of Rhodes, where he intends putting in a crop this season.

Marshall Bayless made two arrests early in the week. One was a phrenological freak whose bump of combativeness was unduly developed and the other was for indecent exposure of person. Both were strangers in the city.

There will be a meeting next Monday night to prepare for a Fourth of July celebration. This is Flagstaff's turn to celebrate the Declaration of Independence and it is hoped that a committee will be appointed who will attend to full details. Turn out Monday night and lend your aid to making the event one of which the whole county will be proud to aid and assist.

Alexander Chisholm, son of John Chisholm, who is an attendant at the Grammar School, met with a painful accident on Friday afternoon, in leaping over the fence he laid his hand upon the top to assist him in springing over and as he alighted on the opposite side one of his fingers caught in some way and was torn off at the first joint. Dr. Robinson dressed the injured hand and it is doing well.

C. J. Babbitt is in Holbrook this week buying cattle.

A line of fine writing tablets and papreties at Timerhoff's.

The Racket Store is selling out at cost its stock of Chinaware.

The poor Indian was seen selling his wares to the unsuspecting pale-face.

Several arrivals were registered at the Hotel de Bayless the last few days.

Henry Banta, better known as "Windy Bill," of Clarksville, was circulating in town yesterday.

The first cherries of the season were brought here yesterday by B. Hoch, the enterprising fruit dealer.

Henry Ashurst, of Williams, was in Flagstaff Thursday attending to business connected with his profession.

There will be a public meeting on Monday night to perfect arrangements for a celebration on the Fourth of July.

Village school shoes for boys and girls. The best school shoe ever brought to Flagstaff are sold by the New York Store.

Mr. Berhart Levi, of the Angelical City, made the Weatherford his headquarters while taking orders for the famous Taco cigars.

The Southern Pacific railroad company are erecting oil tanks on their main line in Southern Arizona and will shortly burn oil instead of coal for motive power.

Pat Fenton returned from his labors on the Winslow Mail Thursday. He and Clark Long will put in a crop of vegetables for this market on land they have leased for that purpose.

The Racket Store is closing out a choice line of Chinaware at cost price and other goods will be sold at or below cost. Remember this is an opportunity that you cannot afford to miss.

Among the members of the 34th regiment who returned from the Philippines last Monday, are Alex. Kuettle, E. McGivering and Chas. C. Boyd. They are looking fine and stood the climate of the islands well.

F. P. Secrist, the efficient sheriff of Navajo county, came in on No. 1 Thursday and spent the day in looking over the city, shaking hands with old friends. Frank is a good officer and is making a record to be proud of in the future.

Wanted—A janitor for the Northern Arizona Normal School. Only a steady and industrious man need apply for the position. Man with small family preferred. Must understand the care of a lawn. Apply to either T. E. Pollock or A. A. Dutton, Flagstaff.

Harrison Conrad, the talented stenographer and private secretary for the Arizona Lumber and Timber company, will issue a book of Arizona poems somewhere near Christmas. Artists are at work at present preparing the illustrations. To those in the least acquainted with Mr. Conrad and his ability, it is needless to say, they all know his productions are of more than ordinary merit. His mind indites as if inspired, and his beautiful thoughts are clothed with words which reveal a nature pure, a soul appreciative and deep—the man ideal, one whom it is a pleasure to know and a delight to clasp his hand, and say "I am numbered among his friends."—Williams News.